4. POLICY STATEMENT

The Company recognizes and embraces the benefits of having a diverse Board of Directors and sees increasing diversity at Board level as an essential element in maintaining a competitive advantage in the complex business that it operates. It is recognized that a Board composed of appropriately qualified people with broad range of experience relevant to the business of the Company is important to achieve effective corporate governance and sustained commercial success of the Company.

A diverse Board will enhance the quality of decisions making and ensure better business performance. Encourage diversity of perspectives thereby enhance creativity and innovation.

A truly diverse Board will include and make good use of differences in the skills, regional and industry experience, background, race, gender and other distinctions between directors. These differences will be considered in determining the optimum composition of the Board and when possible should be balanced appropriately. Board diversity is justified as a key to better corporate governance. It's rightly said that. "The best boards are composed of individuals with different skills, knowledge, information, power, and time to contribute."

The Company maintains that Board appointments should be based on merit that complements and expands the skills, experience and expertise of the Board as a whole taking into account knowledge, professional experience and qualifications, gender, age, cultural and educational background, and any other factors that the Board might consider relevant and applicable from time-to-time for it to function effectively. The ultimate objective is to have a board that offers a broad range of perspectives that are directly relevant to the business and organizational needs.

In the process of attaining a diverse Board based on the aforementioned criteria, the following criteria needs to be assessed:

(1) Optimum Composition

The Board of directors of the Company shall have an optimum combination of Executive and Non-Executive Independent Directors and not less than fifty percent of the board of directors shall comprise of non-executive directors. The composition of the Board shall be in compliance with the requirements of the Articles of Association of the Company, the Companies Act, 2013, Rules made thereunder and Listing Regulations as amended from time to time.

Where the chairperson of the board of directors is a non-executive director, at least one-third of the board of directors shall comprise of independent directors and where the listed entity does not have a regular non-executive chairperson, at least half of the board of directors shall comprise of independent directors:

Provided that where the regular non-executive chairperson is a promoter of the listed entity or is related to any promoter or person occupying management positions at the level of board of director or at one level below the board of directors, at least half of the board of directors of the listed entity shall consist of independent directors.

No listed entity shall appoint a person or continue the directorship of any person as a non-executive director who has attained the age of seventy five years unless a special resolution is passed to that effect, in which case the explanatory statement annexed to the notice for such motion shall indicate the justification for appointing such a person

(2) Functional Diversity:

- (a) Appointment of directors to the Board of the Company should be based on the specific needs and business of the Company. Appointments should be done based on the qualification, knowledge, experience and skill of the proposed appointee which is relevant to the business of the Company.
- (b) While appointing independent director, care should be taken as to the independence of the proposed appointee.
- (c) Directorships in other companies may also be taken into account while determining the candidature of a person.

(3) Stakeholder diversity:

- (a) Subject to the provisions of section 151 read with relevant rules made thereunder, the Company may, upon notice of not less than one thousand small shareholders or one-tenth of the total number of such shareholders, whichever is lower, have a small shareholders' director elected by the small shareholders.

5. ROLE OF NOMINATION AND REMUNERATION COMMITTEE

The Nomination and Remuneration Committee ('NRC') of the Company shall review and assess Board composition on behalf of the Board and shall recommend to the Board, the appointment of new directors based on their qualification, positive attributes and independence.

In reviewing Board composition, NRC will consider the benefits of all aspects of diversity including, but not limited to, those described above, in order to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.

6. REVIEW OF THE POLICY

The NRC will review the policy from time to time and make recommendations on any required changes to Board for consideration and approval.
